Resilience

2020 will forever be instilled in history. The pandemic has had an effect on every single person in the world in some way. As a small family owned and operated restaurant business, we have felt this horrible impact tremendously. Although the pandemic has had a ripple effect on us, we are resilient. The values that have built Hickory Bridge Farm, hard work and dedication, will pull us through. We are determined to be better than ever!

This year we have a few “new” and “outside of the box” things happening at Hickory Bridge. We never thought we would ever enter the world of carryout meals as we are different from many restaurants. Through some trial and a little more error we have our carryout dinners down to a science. We are now able to offer everything you love about Hickory Bridge food as a well packaged carryout. This includes favorites such as; spiced peaches, warm bacon dressing, crab imperial, corn fritters and selected popular entrees. It has been very humbling to have support from so many of our customer friends through the carryout venue. We have enjoyed the same support in our attempts to open back up for inside dining. We are hoping that 2021 will be even better after the smoke clears and we are back to full capacity again. We will continue to offer the carryout as well as inside normal dining in 2021.

The other addition to Hickory Bridge is the “Red Shed.” We completed a major project in part of what used to be the museum and have created a beautiful multipurpose venue for weddings and special events. We look to host a few barn dance parties throughout the year with live bands and DJ's. The decision to make this special venue was based on the demand to host weddings on our beautiful property as well as special occasions with the availability of the Bed and Breakfast.

All of us here at Hickory Bridge are looking forward to what 2021 will bring us. We cannot say thank you enough to those who have reached out to us in support of our family and our business. This truly means so much. The resiliency of the Hickory Bridge family will make us stronger in the new year. We hope to see everyone very soon!
